he "Editors of the Union and Disparen." FRIDAY, DECEMBER 28, 1866. SUPREME COURT OPINION.

Knozville, Tennessee, September Term, 1866.

W. H. Tibbs and others, plaintiffs in error, vs. John Anderson, This is an action of trospass on the case brought by summons and ancellary attachment, in the Circuit Court of Hamilton county, by John Anderson against James W. Gillespie, W. H. Tibbs and twenty-one others. The trespass complained of in the declaration, is, the unlawful arrest and im-prisonment of the defendent in error. During the progress of the cause in the court below, a molle procedur was entered as to several of the defendants, and various other intermediate step, taken which we do not deem necessary to notice.

At the June term of said court, 1866, a dgment was rendered against the plaintiffs in error, for $5,000, and an execution awarded with orders of sale, directing the sheriff to subject the lands of the parties attached to the satisfaction of the be related to the satisfaction of the udgment. At the October term following, the relativistic in extra archibit their issing. e plaintiffs in error exhibit their joint petition to the presiding Judge, and for he reasons therein contained, prayed that the orders of sale and execution of the judgment be superseded and that a writ of He thought the Radical party had made a error, corum noses be granted to revoke and annul the judgment.

The petition is regularly sworn to, and the character of the petitioners sustained the Southern States, and that great damage by comperagators. The application was to the public welfare had been the result of heard in open court, and after full argu-ment the petition was disallowed, and the the amendment, and it was to become a writ refused, from which an appeal in error part of the constitution, he could see no presented to this court. Various errors in fact, are set forth in the petition, many of which do not tend to render the judgment erroneous, much less to preclude its rendition, if such facts had cially appeared on the former trial. We deem it therefore necessary to notice only such facts as are assigned as error, that he thought the party with which which it is insisted are reached by the writ he acted would be nearly a unit in the ad-By the Code, section 3116, it is declared :

The relief embraced in this article is confined to errors of fact, accruing in proceedings of which the person seeking relief had no notice, or which he was prevented by disability from showing or correcting, or in which he was prevented from making defense by surprise, accident, mistake or fraud without fault on his part." The grounds of error, in fact, assigned in the petition are in substance, as follows: 1. That the potitioners were surprised by the plaintiff entering a nolle prosequias to Jas. W. Gillespie, one of the defendants, after the cause was called and the jury was selected. from whom he had received, as petitioners are informed and believes, compensation in lieu of his damages when it was too late to plead accord and satisfaction, which they are advised would have been

2. That they have learned previous to the trial, that the plaintiff received in lieu and in satisfaction of said damages, $150 from Leonidas Hutchinson, one of the defendants, which was not known to petitioners before the trial, and hence not

3. Since the trial of the cause the petitioners are informed and believe that the of his arrest regularly enrolled and mustered into the service of the United States, and that he was captured by the said Wm-L. Brown, a Captain in the service of the so-called Confederate States, at open war with the United States, and hence said cap-ture was purely an act of war, with which petitioners and citizens had nothing to do. Petitioners are informed that on the trial of this cause, two other causes, viz: The case of A. J. Anderson against petitioners, and John Anderson, administrator of James Anderson, deceased, against the same parties, were consolidated and tried at the same time before the same jury, and the same testimony applied to all three of the

Under this state of facts, as presented in the petition, taking them as true, we are called upon to determine whether they are sufficient to justify the issuance of the writ prayed for or not. The rule in such cases, s laid down in Crawford vs. Williams, Is Swan, 341, appears to lie, that an error in fact, which will render a judgment erroneous, must be such as would have precluded the rendition of such judgment if the fact had judicially appeared at the former

This rule, although established before the Code, is not restricted by it. On the contrary, it is rather enlarged, and made to embrace cases of surprise, accident, mis- | Crawfordville: take or fraud, without fault on the part of the applicant for the writ.

In this case, the plaintiff in error plead given on the door, a quick, but pleasant to the action, and by themselves or attor- voice says, "come in," and turning the top neys, were present at the trial, contesting nob of the door gives admittance. BROADWAY MILLS Dear Sir: My wife and child have been suffering for several months from indigestion. My wife, seeing your advertisement, requested me to bring her a bottle of your Stomach Bitters, which I did; and on using one bottle, I am more than happy to state that my child, now four months old, who has not had a voluntary action since its hirth, is entirely restored, and my wife is enjoying the best of health, and is now wholly unwilling to be without a bottle of your Bitters in the house, as shesays it is the most strengthening and appetizing tonic that can be used, and that no house ought to be without it; and I feel it due to the public te make known the wonderful good it has performed in my household, and most heartily recommend its use in every family.

I remain yours respectfully.
